Many Christians today are exhausted because they understand the Christian life to be primarily a life of service for God. We know all the “thou shalt” and “thou shalt not”, but in the midst of the pressures of life, we experience conflict, depression, anxiety, anger, even defeat. We are frustrated over unfulfilled expectations and worn out emotionally and physically. We may begin to question our identity — or our God!

We've heard all about the things we need to be doing. But have we learned how to live loved? For over 28 years, CrossLife's counselors have been helping people like you address the spiritual source of their problems.

We focus on your true identity in Christ and living out of your union with Him, so that you can live an abundant and free life — today.

It is our desire to assist and be a blessing to you! Please don't hesitate to call us if you have questions or if we may be of assistance to you.

Life as God Intended

"Learning to live loved"

We do not teach the individual how to try harder with God's help or how to change himself or improve his self-image. Rather, we help individuals to discover Christ's plan for mastering life. God never intended for His children to live in their own sufficiency, but in Christ's sufficiency. For this reason, the Christ life is not about changing a Christian's life, but exchanging your life for Christ's life and your insufficiency for Christ's sufficiency.

CrossLife International provides Biblically-based, Christ-centered, and client-focused services to individuals, couples, and families. We encourage hurting people to gain spiritual insight regarding who they really are "in Christ." Emotional, behavioral and relational problems are dealt with in an atmosphere of love, acceptance, understanding, and prayer. Counseling is done in our office in Vero Beach, Florida.

To set up an initial prayer assessment appointment, simply call our office at 772-563-0430.

Financial Policy

We offer personal discipleship counseling on a donation basis. Each of our staff counselors raises his or her own personal support. This allows us to offer counseling on a donation basis, according to the counselee's ability to pay. Revenues from counseling, training programs and book store sales are applied to ministry expenses. You will receive a copy of our financial policy at your initial appointment.

Testimonies

"As a Christian most of my life, I've been walking around with blinders on. What an awesome relief to see my true identity in Christ!" - Sam

"If anyone is struggling with emotional issues, this is the answer. God has done wonderful things and revealed so many truths to me!" - Dana

"I feel like I just saw Jesus and myself for the first time!" - M.R.

"I grew up in a home where love was based on performance. My parents loved me but didn't know how to express it. I always thought the abuse came because I was "bad". I knew that Christ died for my sins, but I still tried to get rid of my "badness". I spent years trying to convince myself that God loves me just as I am. Through CrossLife counseling, God helped me to see that my identity comes from Who I am identified with spiritually. It is a "done deal!" I'm not the "bad person" I thought I was. God has done it all. It is so freeing!" -Mary
